JEHU BURKET FAMILY.

Emanuel Burkhart (or Burkhard) had two sons who emigrated to America some time between 1742 and 1754. One of these sons was named Jonathan, the other probably Christian. Their original home was in Canton Basle or Canton Berne, Switzerland.

1. Jonathan Burkhart (or Burkhard), with four children - the wife and mother dying on the ocean voyage - remained together at some undetermined place until his death five years later. ### Hyre.

The three Hyre children who intermarried with the children of Jehu Burkhard were grandchildren of Lienert Hoyer, who with his wife Clara (dau. of Rudolph Lutzler), five children, and her relatives, arrived in America, Sept. 24, 1737. He was a fiefholder or subtenant on the Rutihard at Benken, Canton Basle, Switzerland. They settled first in western Berks Co., Pa., but in a few years located on the South branch of the Potomac in what is now Hardy Co., W. Va. Their son Rudolph (Rudy), bap. May 29, 1729, after fighting the Indians at Fort Seybert, Randolph Co., W. Va., emigrated about 1781 to North Carolina, purchasing 162 acres on Muddy Creek, a branch of the Yadkin, near Winston-Salem, where he died in 1807. Thirteen children were represented in the settlement of his estate, the boys being Rudolph, Jr., Jacob, Leonard, Isaac, Abraham, Benjamin and David, and some of the girls, Mrs Abraham (Catherine) Burkett, Mrs. Jacob Faw of Ashe Co., N. C. (See List of Swiss Emigrants, 18th Century, Vol. 2, Faust & Brumbaugh, 1925).

Faw.

Jacob Pfau, wife, 2 daus., and one son, Abraham, age 2, arrived in Philadelphia in 1749. They located northeast of Frederick, Md.; for a 2d wife, he took Anna Magdalena Yount, sister of Mathias and Adam of Bedford Co., Pa. (Yount Family History, in preparation). Jacob and Isaac were sons of the 2d wife. Abraham Faw was a well-to-do resident of Alexandria, Va. Jacob married a daughter of Rudolph Hyre and Isaac married Magdalene Burkhard.

Wazaman.

This family, represented in the Henry Burkhard family of Montgomery Co., O., came from Somerset Co., Pa. There were three brothers, William, Christian, and John. The first record of them in Somerset Co. is 1785. They moved to Ohio in 1805. Their father seems to have been Christian Martin Wazaman of Vincent Twp., Chester Co., Pa. It is possible that their ancestor was Philip Wazaman of Lehigh (then Northampton) Co., Pa.

Fouts.

Lucinda Fouts, 1832-1914, wife of Asa Burket (1A9m), was a dau. of Elias and Mary (Shaffer) Fouts, Elias, 1792-1875, being a son of Michael Fouts, 1770-1858, and Elizabeth Sinks, 1771-1853. Michael's parents were John Fouts, b. 1740, d.____, and Mary Younce, 1737-1812; Rowan Co., N. C., and Montg. Co., O.

Jehu Burkhard's Bros. and Sister.

1B Nathaniel Burket, b.____ d. 1815; m. Katherine____; m. 2d Mary____. He was a landowner near Libertytown, Md., from 1777 to 1786, and from 1786 until his death he lived a few miles northeast of Staunton, Va., in Augusta Co. From the public records it appears that he had the following children:

Daniel; in 1801, m. Polly Sterlinger

Mrs. Hays Coffee

India; in 1788, m. Peter Link

Sally; in 1791, m. Jacob Long

Susanna; in 1794, m. Abraham Earhart

Joseph, who served in the War of 1812, and married late in life.

John

Hannah; and four younger children.

Dieter Fishburn appears to have been related.

1C Salome, b. Aug. 14, 1734, d. June 26, 1818; m. Peter Burgener, b. 1719, d. 1784. They lived in Elizabeth Twp., Lancaster Co., Pa., 8739 where Peter owned a 100 acre farm. From a History of the Burgner Family, by Jacob Burgner, Oberlin, O., 1890, it appears that Salome was 7 years old when she reached America; that she was married about 1759 and that after Peter's death she lived with her daughter, Mrs Frederick (Mary) Spickler, 1766-1848, near St. Paul's Church, west of Hagerstown, Md. It is stated that Peter Burgener came from the vicinity of Berne, Switzerland, and that the Burkhardt's came from the same place. The port records show the arrival of Peter and Christian Burgener at Philadelphia in 1742. 4 children.

1D Christian Burket. The data on this family will be likely published in a short time by the Rev. Harvey R. Burkett, Tabasha, Minn.
